The Physiotherapist must help promote clients' health and well-being, and maintain their quality of life as much as possible. The Physiotherapist must exercise the utmost discretion and have exceptional interpersonal skills. This individual will assist in the rehabilitation process by developing and restoring body systems (where possible); in particular the neuromuscular, musculoskeletal, cardiovascular and respiratory systems. Other responsibilities include the development and review of treatment programs and the completion and maintenance of client files.

Physiotherapists must work to help maintain and/or increase motor skills, balance, coordination, overall endurance and physical fitness.

Educational and/or Professional Qualifications:

- Minimum 5 years experience
- Graduate of a Post-Secondary program in Physiotherapy.
- License to practice with the Ontario College of Physiotherapists.
- Eligible for membership in the Canadian Physiotherapy Association.
- Education and experience specific to the client populations (e.g. chronic disease, mental health and women's health) an asset.
- Demonstrated commitment to principles of an anti-oppression and cultural competence framework;
- An interest and commitment to working in a low-income, multilingual, multiracial community;
- Thorough knowledge of broad determinants of health and issues affecting low income, multi-lingual and radicalized and LGBTQ communities;
- Community experience an asset
- ADP Authorizer status required.
- Commitment to service excellence including continuing education and continuous quality improvement.
- Ability to function within an interdisciplinary team.
- Ability to adapt to and work effectively within a variety of situations, and with various individuals or groups.
- Demonstrates an ability to work in an iterative environment.
- Demonstrated ability to be flexible.
- Demonstrated ability in problem-solving and critical thinking.
- Able to generate new solutions and develop creative improvements.
- Demonstrated ability to assist clients, family members or other clients with concern and empathy; respecting their confidentiality and privacy and communicating in a courteous and respectful manner.
- Ability to speak a second language of our priority populations is an asset
